

Global Investment Leaders Club

Direct contact between investors

Agenda for 2022:

- 60 club gatherings;
- 4 000 investors;
- 50 000 one-to-one meetings;
- Investment deals worth of $1 billion.

Global Investment Leaders Club

Club season 2022.

Exclusive investment network.

Every club member receives access to a large pool of investment contacts, personal contact details and maintains strong relationship with other investors and family offices, guaranteed.

Each member of the club is provided with a tailor-made programme of participation in the club events. The programme includes a schedule of private meetings and contacts exchange with chosen participants.

Investment Network Certificate.

Upon the completion of the personal investment network growth programme each club member is awarded with a Certificate of Specialist, Expert or Magister of the Investment Network. A Certificate includes detailed characteristics of the acquired investment network (it certifies personal experience in building relationships, level of connections, number of conducted meetings, number of efficient meetings, regions and industries of expertise, etc). Certificate can be used to assess the intangible assets of a club member or their company.

Global Investment Leaders Club

Global Investment Leaders Club has been created 6 years ago by the initiative of large international investors.

The main objectives of the club are:

- to create a comfortable place for establishing direct contact and free communication between investors;
- to expand high net-worth-individual network of investors;
- to honour accomplished club members by bestowing Certificate of Investment Network upon them.

Global Investment Leaders Club

Who is it for?

For the heads of investment companies, family offices, Royal family offices, banks and large investors.

The club's high-end business network includes the heads of investment companies from all over the world with various investments interests and tickets. Therefore, being a club member benefits investors from any country or industry.

Global Investment Leaders Club

What is it designed for?

- Establishing and expanding trustful relationships with other investment leaders in all regions of the world.
- Having unlimited investment opportunities, access to firsthand information, resources and markets.
- Having effective high-end investment networking every week even without business trips.
- Increasing the value of intangible assets by getting Certificate of Investment Network.

Global Investment Leaders Club

How does it work?

For the Club community, we provide a revolutionary approach to building business relationships.

A personal network programme of one-to-one meetings, club gatherings and contacts exchange is tailored for every club member. The programme addresses personal and investment interest of every participant.

Club personal assistants take complete care of the growth of your elite network and facilitate the achievement of your goals within the Club. They explore your interests, select interesting members according to your goals, introduce you and arrange private meetings with them, and assist club members with exchanging business cards.

Upon the completion of the personal investment network growth programme Certificate of Investment Network is awarded to accomplished club members. It demonstrates the quality and size of personal investment network and can be used to evaluate intangible assets of a club member or their companies.

Global Investment Leaders Club

Instant direct contact between decision-makers.

We believe, that establishing business relationships should be as easy as finding a car with Uber. Before, this process used to be highly inconvenient. We have transformed the process of establishing business connections into an easy, controllable and efficient operation.

Full information in the profiles of the club members allows you to accurately find right decision-makers to connect with. It takes just one click to establish contact with them. And with the help of your personal club assistant you can have all meetings you need in the most comfortable way.

Global Investment Leaders Club

Bespoke direct contact.

- Building trustworthy relationships between company heads requires respect and care. The long-standing traditions of the club create unique conditions for friendly and trustworthy bonds between club members, even if they have not been acquainted before.
- Club members can easily establish good relationships with each other during a video conference, a phone call, virtual gatherings or personal physical meetings.
- Club assistants organise video conferences upon request of the club members, recommend and introduce members to each other.

Global Investment Leaders Club
