How does it work?

We understand the importance of caution in choosing connections. That is why we have a rigorous approach to curating the Club investment community. We have a personal network programme of one-to-one meetings, Club gatherings and contact exchanges for every Club member. The programme addresses the personal and investment interests of every participant.

Club personal assistants take complete care of the growth of your elite network and facilitate the achievement of your goals within the Club. They explore your interests, select interesting members according to your goals, introduce you and arrange private meetings with them, and provide assistance with exchanging business cards.
